ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the Jury Selection and Trial in this matter currently scheduled for June 27, 2022. On May 18, 2022, the United States (the “Government”) moved for an extension of the discovery deadline and an extension under the Speedy Trial Act, citing the need for additional time for diligent preparation. See ECF No. 43. Defendants do not object to this request. See ECF No. 45, 46. For the reasons stated herein, the Government’s motion is granted, the discovery deadline will be extended nunc pro tunc to June 30, 2022, and the time to try this case is extended up to and including January 9, 2023.

In response to the current conditions in the COVID-19 pandemic, the undersigned, as Chief Judge of the District Court of the Virgin Islands, issued a general order concerning operations of the Court on May 30, 2022, tentatively pausing the resumption of jury trials in the district. The Court hereby fully incorporates the findings from the Court’s Thirty-Eighth Operations Order as fully stated herein.

To date, the COVID-19 virus has claimed more than 1,010,000 lives in the United States (118 of which have been in the U.S. Virgin Islands). COVID-19 continues to present an unpredictable threat to public health and safety, as shown in the recent surge in COVID-19 cases both in the continental United States and the Virgin Islands. While the number of fatalities in the territory have not increased commensurately, the Court is wary that such a drastic spike in active cases may well precede a rise in COVID-19 related fatalities by several weeks. Further, the Court is cognizant of the significant spike in COVID-19 cases that immediately followed the events of St. Thomas Carnival. With St. John Celebration scheduled to commence June 30, 2022, with a similar lineup of events and gatherings, the Court is cautiously pessimistic as to the immediate future with regard to the spread of COVID-19 in the territory. As such, the Court finds that extending the period within which
